May 2013 Barnett Law Group Breaking News

1st Comprehensive Immigration Reform Information Sessions – Sat., May 18

This Saturday The Barnett Law Group will be hosting its first information sessions on Comprehensive Immigration Reform at our offices located at 7880 San Felipe, Suite 115, Houston, Texas 77063. Entitled “What You Need to Know about Immigration Reform and What You Must Do Now!” we are offering 2 free sessions with complimentary materials to the first 30 people who respond to this email. The first session will be held from 10:00 to 11:00 limited to 15 people and the second session will be held from 11:30 to 12:30 for up to 15 people.

Topics to be covered:

1. Do I Still Need to file for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals?
2. What’s the process for Provisional Waivers for Spouses of US citizens?
3. Why do I need to file now for my son or daughter or for my brother or sister if I’m a US citizen?
4. What will happen to married sons and daughters of US citizens?
5. What’s a V Visa?
6. What will the Registered Provisional Immigrant (RPI) process be and what do I need to do now to get ready for it?
7. What other changes may take place for Employment Visas?

The Senate is busy marking up the bill which currently is 844 pages! Over 300 amendments have already been filed. The House is working on its own immigration bills. Clearly nothing will be enacted this minute but there is important information that you need to know and certain steps that you should take now to benefit from whatever law is eventually enacted.

Call our firm now or email us to reserve your space. And, if you can’t attend this month’s session we will be having more sessions on a frequent basis until the new law is passed. Tell your friends and colleagues. No matter whether you are in the U.S. lawfully or otherwise the new law will change our current immigration system for everyone.

If you are interested in learning more about these new developments, please contact our firm at (713) 980-9939 or admin1@barnett-lawgroup.com.
